VOLUME CVI.-NO. 242. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 12, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrinking from that second "change of life" which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such fears are largely warranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her. Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change in face, form or feeling as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health with the health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of caprice to please others or personal inability to enjoy life.

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' brought me safely through that difficult period, called 'change of life,'" writes Mrs. Mary E. Smith, of 34 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, became excited, frustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was lost and for days I was unable to eat a fair meal. I had no more sleep. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

You may be willing that somebody else shall say that your baby is "just as good" as yours, but you don't want that baby substituted for yours. Let dealers say what they like about other medicines being "just as good" but don't let them substitute anything for "Favorite Prescription." It is absolutely unequalled.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. New-tre's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Worsted the Masher.
Miss O. Mison Sots, who stood a husky athlete on his head when he attempted to speak to her, gave an exhibition in the Harlem Police Court to the magistrate yesterday afternoon which greatly delighted the judges and probably caused many "mashers" who were in court to register a mental resolution never to tackle a diminutive Japanese. The young woman, who weighs only 95 pounds, was in court to complain against John F. McCullen, a sparring partner of Terry McGovern, whom she charged with having attempted to speak to her in the street and whom she stood on his head quicker than he could say "scat."

When her story had been told, though an interpreter, McCullen was fined $5. "Ajax" Whitman, the strongest policeman on the force, was in court, and he and the magistrate joined in a demand that the young woman give an exhibition of her prowess. She consented, and twice in succession threw the interpreter to the bridge. He weighed 160 pounds and tried to break loose from the young woman's grip, but with no avail. She told the court that she was no more expert at the game than any of her Japanese sisters, and that all were as fearless as she when it came to a question of settling with a "masher."

Miss Sots, after the interpreter had put his hand on her shoulder as McCullen is alleged to have done, grabbed the interpreter's other arm with a quick motion, shoved one of her tiny feet forward, and the interpreter was hurled backward to the floor. The exhibition was not a satisfactory one to the pair from the land of cherry blossoms, evidently, for Miss Sots signified a desire to do it over again. This time Yoshimura had barely taken a grip on the little woman's shoulder than he was sent flying through the air over Miss Sots's head, landing on the floor with a thud that shook the room. The spectators, who had climbed on chairs to see the exhibition of the little woman's prowess, cheered and the magistrate laughed heartily.

Five Killed in Mutiny.
In the mutiny of four negro members of the four-masted schooner Harry A. Berwind, bound from Mobile to Philadelphia, Capt. Rumill, his mate, cook, and engineer were killed and their bodies thrown overboard. Three of the negroes are under arrest at Southport, N. C., and the other mutineer is dead.
According to the stories told by the negroes, the mutiny arose as the result of a quarrel aboard the Berwind early Tuesday morning about some coffee that was being brewed for breakfast.
The schooner Blanche H. King, Capt. J. W. Taylor, bound from Brunswick, Ga., to Philadelphia, put in at Southport yesterday afternoon, bringing in iron the three negroes.

The Harry A. Berwind left Mobile September 23. She was sighted early yesterday morning thirty miles off the Cape Fear bar by Capt. Taylor, whose attention was attracted by the reckless manner in which the ill-fated vessel was being steered, her course threatening to run down his own vessel. Upon a signal from the Berwind Capt. Taylor and crew boarded the vessel and placed the three negroes in irons, bringing the two vessels off the bar.

When the Berwind was boarded the decks of the schooner were crimson with blood, showing evidence of a fierce encounter. The mate's berth was spotted with blood, indicating that he was butchered in bed. One of the prisoners says the mate begged piteously for his life, but in vain.

After the boarding party from the King handcuffed the mutineers on the ship, one of the negroes complained the irons were too tight and hurt him. When one of the boarding party loosened the bracelets on the negro's arm, the captive whipped out a pistol and shot one of his own crew, the presumption being that the man killed had signalled the King against the wishes of the three others.

Could Not Be Better.
The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Pleasure To All.
